

New Opportunities in Family Day Care

A free Family Day Care orientation program

The Family Day Care orientation program is available for people who have completed or are studying Certificate III in Children's Services.

For information contact

Uzay Ceylan on 9353 5825

Janet Elefsiniotis on 93535820

Creating vocational training and job opportunities for migrant and refugee women

The orientation program includes:

- What is family day care?
- Occupational Health and Safety
- Preparing your home for family day care
- Early Years Learning Framework
- Care routines and educational activities
- Early literacy and story telling
- Leadership skills
- Business of family day care, incl. finances, administration, insurance and taxation, data recording and management.
- Workplace preparation and support

Participants will be able to complete or update certificates in First Aid/CPR, Food Safety, Anaphylaxis and Asthma Management.

This program covers the accredited unit CHCA L307A Comply with family day care administration requirements.

VICSEG
new futures

opportunities for diverse communities

With funding support from:

Australian Government Department of Human Services (under the Better Futures, Local Solutions initiative)

Department of Planning and Community Development

